

Author of the bestselling Poo Bum

Stephanie Blake

I'm the BIGGEST

GECKO PRESS

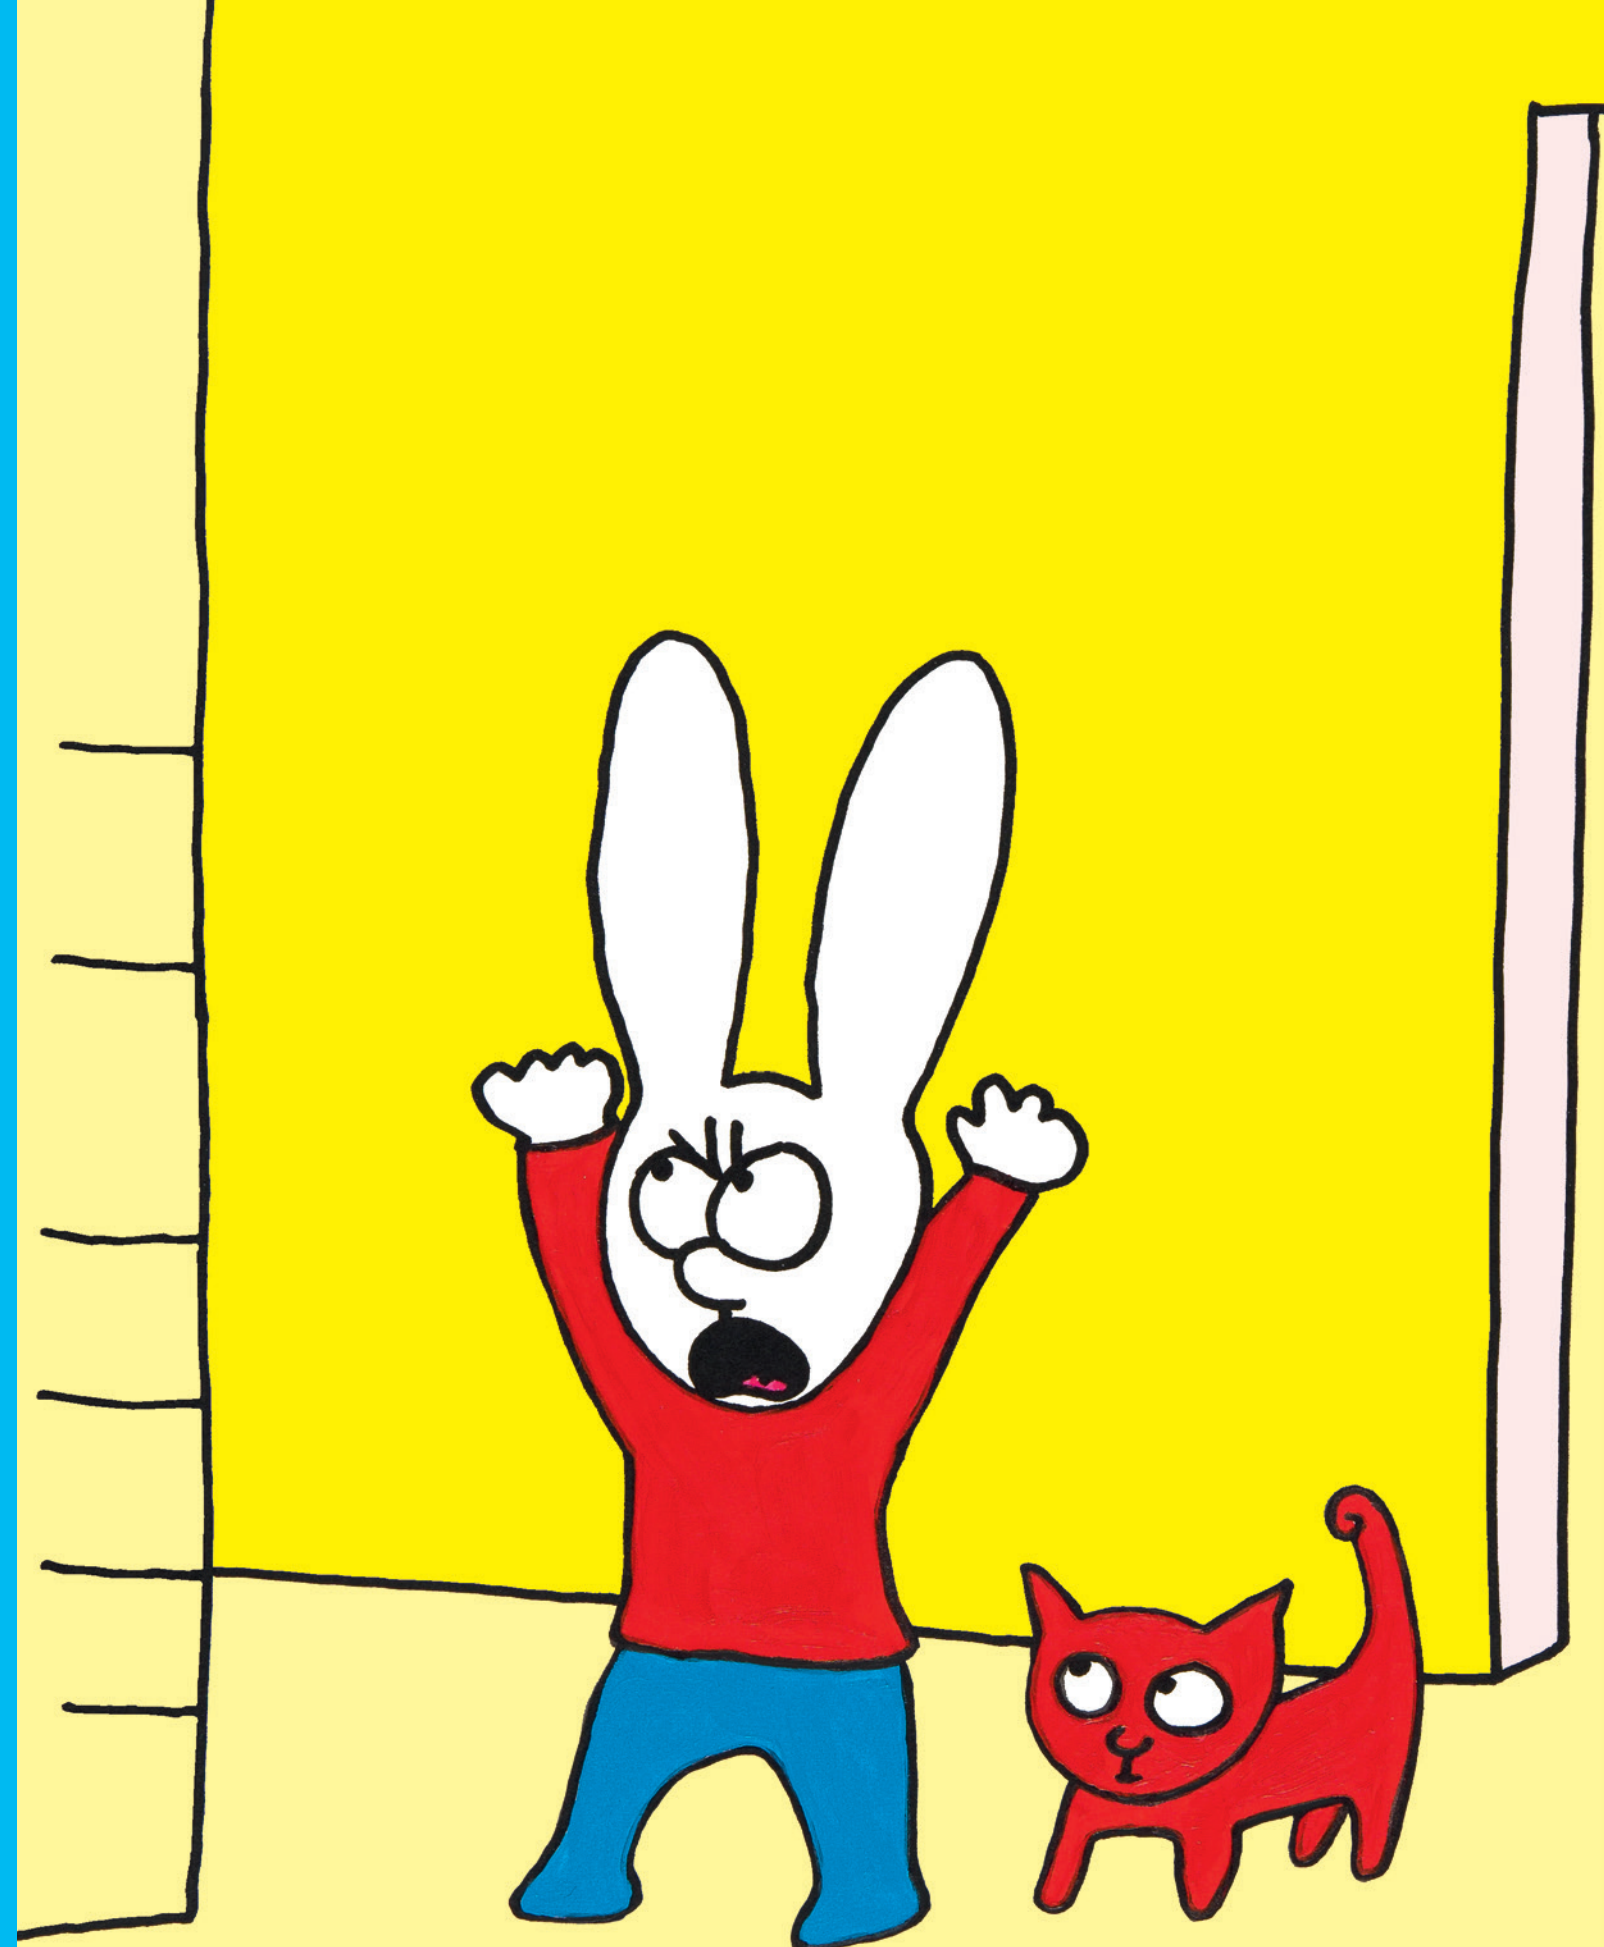

“Yes – you’ve grown too, Simon.
You’ve grown one centimetre but Casper has grown

THREE
centimetres.”

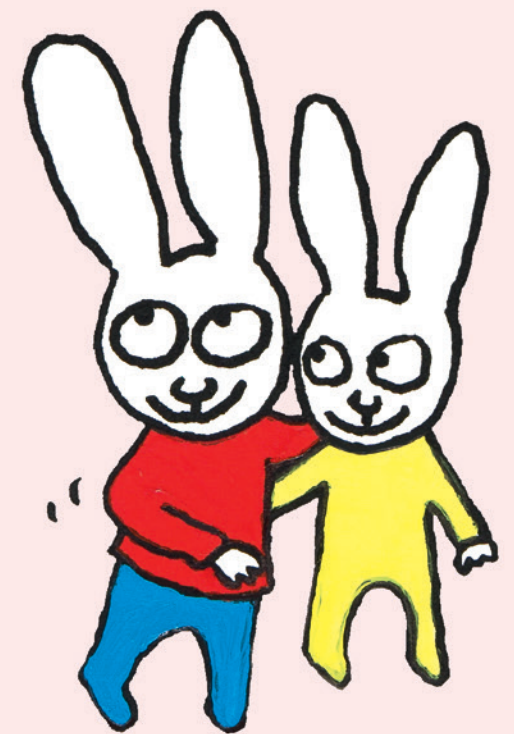

“No way,” replies Simon.

In his room Simon looks at the marks on the wall.
He is furious.
He's grown only one teeny tiny centimetre and Casper has grown
THREE!
In a teeny tiny voice
Simon says,
"I hate that silly baby."

That afternoon their mother takes
them to the park.
When she says,
“Simon, look after Casper, please,”
he replies:
“Of course, dear Mother.
Don’t worry!
I’ll take VERY BIG care of him.”

His little brother is being bullied
by a BIG boy
from Simon's class.

But after a moment
he begins to feel funny inside.
Then he turns
red with rage.
“No one touches

MY

little brother!”

He races over yelling:

